

Proposition for a Space consultant

Kapitech presentation:

Kapitech is a Polish consulting company working in space sector, subsidiary of a French company. The aim of the company is to propose a complete range of services for actors (companies, research labs, local authorities etc.) wishing develop activities in space market, either for satellites manufacturing either for services development (earth observation, navigation etc.).

In particular, Kapitech is involved in the preparation and operation of projects dealing with space in the frame of Horizon 2020 and ESA.

In order to support its development, Kapitech is looking for a consultant in Space sector (Engineering, applications, space data processing,).

Mission:

Under the responsibility of the Warsaw office manager, and with the methodological support of the mother company the mission will be:

- to participate to proposals writing about space application
- to manage or contribute technically to application space projects

Beginning: February 2016

Localization: Kapitech premises in Warsaw, with travels in Europe, in France in particular

Profile: Scientific profile, (master or PhD in aeronautic or space)

Background: Use of space data, Innovation Management, Space Engineering, experience in consulting would be an added value

Competencies: Open mind, strong interest for space, rigor, general scientific knowledge, good capacities of communication, flexibility, autonomy

Languages: Polish Native, fluent English speaking, French speaking would be an added value

Contacts:

Iuliia Stroska (istroska@kapitech.pl) Tel: +48 664 911 677

Philippe Lattes (plattes@kapitech.pl). Tel : +33 638 813 717

