

The Bronisław Geremek Fellowship program is to foster study and reflection of Polish national heritage in the context of European tradition.

The fellowship enables a young Polish doctoral or post-doctoral researcher to work on a research project of her/his choice. The fellowship is open to all academic disciplines in the humanities and social sciences.

The scholar will spend the academic year 2009/2010 (i.e. ten months) at the IWM to pursue her/his research project while working in residence at the IWM. For more information about the IWM please visit www.iwm.at/research.htm

The fellow will receive a stipend in the amount of EUR 2,000 per month to cover accommodation, living expenses, travel, health insurance and incidentals during the stay in Vienna. The IWM will provide a personal office, IT infrastructure, access to the internet, in-house research facilities and other relevant sources in Vienna.

Details about eligibility and application procedure under www.iwm.at/fellowships.htm

Deadline: May 15, 2009